

Rubric & Assignment Grading Matrix

ENGL 340 — The Modern Novel: Narrative Form and Ideology

Meridian University ■ Department of English ■ Fall Semester

Assignment Details

Assignment: Critical Analysis Essay
Prompt: Narrative Unreliability in 20th-Century Fiction
Length: 2,000–2,500 words
Format: MLA 9th ed., double-spaced
Weight: 25% of final course grade
Due: Friday, October 30, 2026, 11:59 pm

Student & Submission

Student: Marcus Whitfield
Student ID: MU-2029-0417
Section: 340-02, T/Th 2:00 pm
Instructor: Dr. Elena Voss
Submitted: October 30, 2026
Graded: November 6, 2026

Grading Scale

Level	Points	Descriptor
Excellent	4	Sophisticated, original work that exceeds expectations in every dimension of the criterion.
Proficient	3	Solid, competent work that meets all core expectations of the criterion.
Developing	2	Adequate work with noticeable gaps in execution, depth, or consistency.
Beginning	1	Significant revision required; core requirements of the criterion are largely unmet.

Criterion Weighting

Relative weight of each criterion toward the 100-point total for this assignment.

- Thesis & Argument (20%)
- Evidence & Textual Support (20%)
- Analysis & Critical Thinking (25%)
- Organization & Structure (15%)
- Style, Voice & Mechanics (10%)
- Citation & Formatting – MLA (10%)